I would like very much to see the FCC to abolish the morse code requirement for ham radio licenses.It is outdated and is not in line with today's technology.
                          Thank you kindly.